

We Need You!

The Nevada Family Support Resource Subcommittee (FSRS) has openings for new parent volunteers.

- Opportunity to bring valuable perspectives to early intervention issues
- Family input is needed and necessary
- See how programs impact families
- Learn and utilize leadership skills while you speak for other families
- Help change systems to support families in early intervention services

NO experience necessary!

All meetings are by telephone at no cost to you.

The FSRS meets approximately four (4) times a year for about 1 hour.

Join us in being a voice for our children.

If you are interested or have questions, please contact:
Dan Dinnell at ddinnell@adsd.nv.gov or toll free at 1-800-522-0066.

Training, travel and stipends may be provided when necessary.

Project ASSIST: 1-800-522-0066

ICC Family Support Resource Subcommittee

Our Mission Statement

The Nevada ICC's Family Support Resource Subcommittee will support ICC activities and ensure the ICC responds to issues important to families, strengthen and broaden family involvement at all policy and service levels, increase ICC communication with families, provide public awareness support, and identify and support efforts to improve early intervention services and programs within communities.

